

Social Media Policy

As a general rule our providers don't accept friends or contact requests from current or former clients on any social networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc). We believe that adding clients as friends or contacts on these sites can compromise your confidentiality and it may also blur the boundaries of our therapeutic relationship.

Business Review Sites

You may find Mountain Mind practice on sites such as Yelp, Healthgrades, Yahoo Local, Bing, or other places which list businesses. Some of these sites include forums in which users rate their providers and add reviews. Many of these sites automatically add listings regardless of whether the business has added itself to the site. If you should find our listing on any of these sites, please be aware that Mountain Mind didn't request to be placed there.

Of course, you have a right to express yourself on any site you wish. But due to confidentiality, we cannot respond to any review on any of these sites whether it is positive or negative. Instead we urge you to take your own privacy seriously. You should also be aware that if you are using these sites to communicate indirectly with us about your feelings there is a good possibility that we may never see it.

If we are working together, we hope that you will bring your feelings and reactions to our work directly. This can be an important part of interactions, even if you decide we are not a good fit.

If you do choose to write something on a business review site, we hope you will keep in mind that you may be sharing personally revealing information in a public forum. We urge you to create a pseudonym that is not linked to your regular email address or friend networks for your own privacy and protection.
